At Death by Tequila, there's a marriage between bar and kitchen. Like our menu, our freshly crafted cocktails are inspired by Baja, local ingredients and the seasons. Every cocktail is designed to add an entirely new element to every dish. A little more fruit-forward and refreshing in spring and summer, a tad more sultry with a hint of spice and heat in cooler months. Choose a house margarita or live dangerously with a cross-border blend of unexpected flavors, from tamarind and aquachile to prickly pear.
